Raider Review

Students are busy

By Phil Agee

Whether involved in academics, club activities, or athletic events, students at ACHS have been very busy.

Several clubs and organizations have been actively involved with fund-raising projects. FBLA members have been helping students start the day off right by selling donuts in the morning before class. All earnings from the donut sales will go towards lowering membership dues. Chorus members are also busy selling candy in an effort to raise money.

The cheerleaders at ACHS have done more than just promote spirit lately. Friday night they sponsored the first dance of the year following the Raiders victory over Liberty.

Preparation has already begun for ACHS' homecoming. Last week preliminary selections for the homecoming court took place. The 1982 Homecoming Queen will be announced Friday, October 8 when the Raiders host Buckingham High School.

The ACHS marching band gave their first performance of the season Friday night. The band, which has been practicing since early summer, is to be commended for their excellent showmanship.

The ACHS girls basketball team had a rough time last week despite outstanding scoring from senior Ruby Smith. The Raideretes came up short against both Liberty and Buckingham. The team will get it's chance to avenge an earlier loss to Gretna when they host the Hawks this Thursday night.

The Raider football team has once again blasted another opponent. Liberty's Minutemen were the victims this time falling 35-0. The Raiders, who have held each of their opponents scoreless, pushed their record to 4-0. Last week the Raiders were rated 5th in the state out of all Group AA schools. Fridays victory could possibly propel ACHS even higher in the state ratings.

ACHS will battle Rustburg this Friday night in a key district contest at Rustburg. The Raiders ask for your support as they seek their third consecutive win over the Red Devils.

DANA AND CHRISTIE CAMPBELL were winners in the stain ceramics category at the Five County Fair in Farmville. Their entries were completed at L&A Ceramics in Concord. L&A has had ceramic winners at the fair for four consecutive years.

Chorale to sell Holland bulbs

A 25 century heritage of cultivation has been brought to perfection by the master growers of Holland.

You can create a dazzling array of spring beauty with imported Holland flowering bulbs by planting this fall and witnessing the age-old splendor of bursting color in the Spring.

Members of the ACHS Chorale will be asking for your support by purchasing these bulbs from them. They will be delivered to you the latter part of October in time for planting after frost. These are guaranteed quality bulbs.

Extend your support to this worthy group by purchasing imported Holland bulbs and receive a sense of satisfaction-not only in supporting this group, but the glorious springtime miracle of growth and color you will witness.

Primary PTA holds meeting

The first meeting of the Appomattox County Primary School PTA met September 16 at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria.

President Paul Kvasnicka called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. The officers for this year were introduced Secretary Sandy Wilburn read her report and Treasurer Diana Williams gave the treasurer's report. Debbie Powell reported on the Parent Volunteer Program explaining what it was and encouraged everyone to participate.

Plans are being made for the Halloween Carnival to be held October 23 from 5 to 9 p.m. that night and another money making project, the Railroad Festival breakfast.

Next Mrs. Pat Torrence, principal of the primary school, spoke to us about the purpose of the Open House. She introduced the teachers and instructors. After that we were students for thirty minutes in our children's class. It was very informative to talk to the teachers, the literature was studied and we saw what the child does from 9 to 3 each day.

Everyone is reminded that our next PTA meeting is November 18 at 7 p.m. The program for the November meeting is the Book Fair and a discussion on children and reading lead by Dr. Beatrice Bland, retired professor from Longwood College.

Everyone is urged to attend.

Play planned

Depot Dramatics will present Neil Simon's "Plaza Suite" on October 9. The play is a part of the Historic Appomattox Railroad Day festivities and will be produced in the Appomattox County High School auditorium immediately following the fireworks demonstration.

The hilarious comedy features three separate stories all set in a room in the Plaza Hotel. The cost includes Tamara Nash, David Williams, Ben Martin, Scott Driscoll, Becky Mason, Barry Hamlet, Margaretta Flood, Joyce Sweet, and Darrell Puckett.

Tickets will go on sale this week for $2.00.

Make plans to support your community theatre group and enjoy an evening's entertainment by attending "Plaza Suite."

Program kicked off

The anti-cold homes committee has begun with its efforts to help keep anyone in Appomattox County from being cold again this winter. We wish to sincerely thank all of you who have helped in the past with time, money, furnishing wood, delivering wood, or any other way that you may have helped. Your concern has been appreciated by the committee and by those persons in an emergency need.

We do want to remind all citizens of our county that we are still continuing with our efforts and would like to ask at this time for help with donations of money, time, wood, whatever you have to offer.

If you have time, and would like to attend our meetings, you will be welcome. We meet on the second Thursday of each month at 9:30 in the morning at the Farmer's National Bank, Triangle Plaza Branch, conference room.

You may inquire about our committee by calling William Britton, telephone 352-8268; Richard Martin, 352-7125; Peggy Lawson, 352-8090; or Virginia Carnefix, 352-7843. Checks may be mailed to Mrs. Virginia Carnefix, Route 4, Box 48 F, Appomattox, Virginia.

Forest festival slated

The Third Annual Buckingham Forest Festival will be held Sat., Oct. 2, 1982, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the Buckingham County High School campus. The celebration is being sponsored by the Buckingham Ruritan Club to promote the forest industry which is vital to the economy of Buckingham and surrounding counties. Last Year's Festival drew hundreds of persons to participate in Festival events.

Forest related activities are a key factor to the well being of Buckingham County. Eighty percent of the County is covered by timberlands. Twenty-two percent of the area's work force are employed in forest related vocations. Over 298,000 acres in Buckingham County are timberland. Buckingham's forests are being wisely used, with the rate of forest growth exceeding timber harvest by four million board feet for the latest year statistics are available, 1976.

The Forest Festival promises something to appeal to all. Contests planned include cross-cut sawing, box sawing, axe cutting, chain-saw cutting and log rolling. This year's Festival will also include a parade.

Both commercial and educational exhibits are being lined up. Companies manufacturing timber harvesting equipment are invited to show their products to Buckingham users. Entertainment from country music to chain saw carving will be on hand. Craftsmen producing wood products are encouraged to exhibit and sell their wares. A variety of foods and prizes will be available throughout the day.

Buckingham Ruritans need the support of citizens of Buckingham County and Central Virginia to make the Festival a success.

Additional information may be obtained from Ruritan President, Aubrey J. Zumbro, 983-3235.
